(Kind Attn: D. Joseph, Director Estt.(N)-II)

Sub: Clarification regarding interse seniority list in case of reduction in training period.

The MCF, Raebareli is a newly established Production Unit. It invited applications from the staff working in different Railway units to join MCF on option basis to man the cadres. Accordingly, the staff working in different Railway units have joined the MCF. The Supervisory cadre of MCF was closed w.e.f. 31.12.2014.

2. Attached herewith please find a list of SSE (WS) of MCF whose date of entry into SSE is 01.11.2013. Since their date of promotion into SSE is same, date of entry into JE would form the criteria to assign the interse seniority in the SSE cadre.
3. The prescribed initial training for RRB recruited JE and promotional training for JE (IQ) was 18 months at that time. The staff get seniority into JE w.e.f. the date of joining the functional post after successful completion of the prescribed training. However, it is noted that RCF/Kapurthala has curtailed the prescribed training from 18 months to 12 months in case of a few staff. This has led to an anomaly in assigning the interse seniority of staff who have joined MCF from different Railway units. The staff, who have joined from RCF/Kapurthala and have done curtailed initial training of only 12 months, have become senior to the staff who have joined from other Railways and have undergone complete training of 18 months prescribed for JE.
4. Since the RB guidelines on deciding interse seniority are silent on this aspect, the Railway Board is requested to kindly clarify if date of entry into JE for the staff who have undergone curtailed initial training would be reckoned from the date of completion of curtailed training i.e. 12 months in the extant case of JE or from the date they would have completed the prescribed length of training i.e. 18 months in the extant case of JE. Kindly also clarify if the curtailed training would have any bearing on deciding the date of increment.

This has approval of PCPO.
